

Challenges for the water industry

- High levels of service expected
- Estimating savings from demand management
- Estimating future demand
- Limited resource development opportunities
- Resource availability under a changing climate
- Lag in pollution prevention measures taking affect
- Impacts of environmental legislation
- Innovative solutions required